SEASON 3, DOUBLE THE MONEY

The IPL is a walking billboard for Lalit Modi's ambitions. IPL-3 promises twice the money due to new sources of income. Eight teams earn from two segments, a central-revenue pool and local revenues. Till season 2, each team earned central revenue only from the TV rights upped from $1 billion for 10 years in Season 1 to $1.6bn in Season 2.

The Central Revenue Pool

THEATRICAL RIGHTS Sale of rights to IPL screenings in cinema halls and bars to ESD for Rs 330 crore for 10 years. Teams will get a share of the revenues.

INTERNET RIGHTS Sale of rights to YouTube facilitated by Global Cricket Ventures (GCV) for $7 million for two years. Teams will get a revenue share.

AFTER-MATCH PARTIES Sponsorship by Kingfisher for Rs 12 crore for a year. Home team has to show up, some for at least an hour, there's a fashion show, and all the liquor served is UB. Entire amount is shared by teams.

COLORS CONTENT DEAL Worth Rs 100-crore a year for branded shows, IPL Rockstar, IPL Awards Night, IPL Parties and IPL Fear Factor. Teams earn 90 per cent of this sum.

SPONSORSHIP OF THE BLIMP Sold to MRF for Rs 15 crore for 24 matches where it appears over the stadium.

ADVERTISEMENTS BETWEEN OVERS ON STADIUM SCREEN IPL owns 150 seconds of air time on SetMax devoted to ads appearing on the screen which also gets covered on TV. At Rs 6 lakh per 10 seconds, it is Rs 90 lakh per match, a minimum of Rs 54 crore for 60 matches. The amount is shared with the teams.

MOBILE RIGHTS This includes live streaming sold to Appalya Technologies, mobile internet opportunities sold to July Systems, Cric Zenga for mobile scorecard and SIEL for smart phone applications on a revenue sharing basis.

GROUND SPONSORSHIPS The four strategic time outs have been sold to Maxx Mobile for Rs 17-20 crore for the year. A fourth central sponsor, Karbonn Mobiles, added to the existing title sponsor DLF (Rs 200 crore for five years) and associate sponsors Hero Honda, Vodafone and Citibank, who pay around Rs 25 crore for five years each. Fifty-four per cent of this is distributed among teams.

The Local Revenue

1 INDIVIDUAL TEAM SPONSORS

In Season 1, the total number of brands was 40. In Season 2, it grew to 69 and has already crossed 80 this year. Kolkata Knight Riders has the most sponsors at 12, earning about Rs 59 crore. Chennai Super Kings has 10 sponsors, earning Rs 45 crore, followed by Mumbai Indians and Delhi Daredevils at Rs 40 crore each.

2 GATE RECEIPTS

In Season 1, the highest earners made around Rs 15 crore each. Season 3 receipts are poised to rise by 25 per cent.

3 IN-STADIA ADVERTISING

In Season 1 in-stadia advertising was minuscule and is expected to show a 100 per cent jump this year.

4 LICENSING & MERCHANDISING

Non-existent in the first year, except for the widely popular Kolkata Knight Riders and Mumbai Indians, it is now taking off. The growth and popularity of team shirts and flags is spreading.
