

Here is hoping what tugs at your heart loosens your purse strings

Let's be blunt about it. What the disabled and the aged need to lead a life of ease and dignity is not sympathy but support from large hearted people like you. Your contributions would make a world of difference to their lives. Rs.3500/- would provide for a day's meal for the inmates of the home or you could sponsor an orphaned child by contributing Rs.8,500/- or the aged for Rs.5,500/-

Pardon us for being so direct. When it comes to lives at stake, you would agree, there is no room for niceties.

For over two decades or more, The United Educational and Social Welfare Trust have been bringing hope into the lives of the disabled through educational and vocational training programs to give them the confidence to face life with equanimity and dignity. The Trust also runs a home for the aged and for the adult mentally challenged who have no place to go and no future to look forward to.
