

VOLUME CONTROL

A STREET vendor balances a pile of books as he winds his way through vehicles at a traffic signal in Delhi. The Right to Education Act came into force on April 1, but it's not certain what benefit children like this one will derive from it.

SUBIR HALDER/www.indiatodayimages.com

TRINAMOOL MP KABIR SUMAN OPENS A NEW LINE OF ATTACK ON HIS PARTY, WHICH FINDS IT HARD TO EXPEL HIM.

KOLKATA | Rebel Yell

Singer Kabir Suman is doing rather well in the cake consumption department—in every way. Just months after his election as an MP in May, he declared that he felt “stifled” on not being allowed to voice his opinion on the Maoists. He threatened to quit but was dissuaded by Mahasweta Devi, Magsaysay Award winner and Mamata Banerjee’s mentor. Now, Suman has adopted a new slogan—“Trinamool is corrupt at the core”. Many intellectuals now want Banerjee and Suman to reduce the decibel level and bury the hatchet. Banerjee knows that if she expels Suman from the Trinamool, he can continue as an MP, which she doesn’t want. Suman is in full flow. “I am waiting. Let her expel me,” he told INDIA TODAY. His election manager Mofazel Hussain has been expelled from the Trinamool which only makes Suman laugh, “Mamata had appointed him. I didn’t even know him before my campaign.”

by Abhijit Dasgupta