

6

SHAH RUKH KHAN

44, Actor (5)

Tough Act

Because he stared down the bullying Shiv Sena, emerged as the voice of the liberal Indian, and showed courage to a city that lives in fear of paper tigers.

Becausewhen the Sena called for a ban on My Name is Khan, he got the government machinery firmly behind him even as citizens flaunted a visit to the multiplex as a badge of honour.

Becausewith a VFX studio and an IPL cricket team, he has shown showbusiness can be big business.

Becausehe pulled off a stunning performance in My Name is Khan, silencing critics who thought his repertoire was limited.

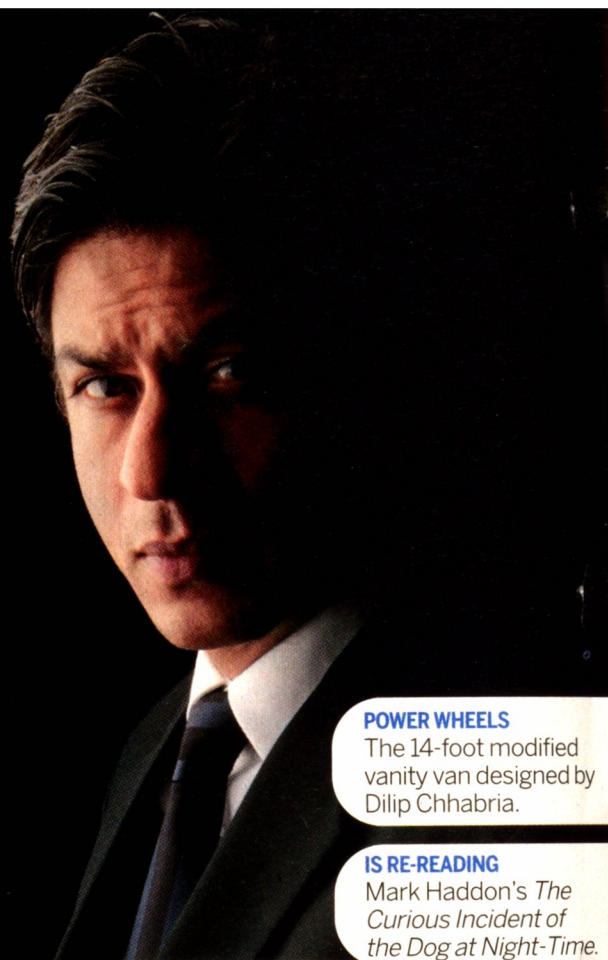

Becauseeven when he loses, he wins, as the net profit of his team, Kolkata Knight Riders, has shown.

Becausehe has a stranglehold on our affections and as much as he cannot stop talking, India cannot stop listening.

Loves to Spend time with his children.

Cannot live without Luxury brands, from Ralph Lauren towels to Dolce&Gabbana shoes to Gucci T-shirts.

Should be embarrassed about Going ahead with the Lux Cozy endorsement despite being told of the owner Ashok Todi's role in the Rizwanur case.

POWER WHEELS

The 14-foot modified vanity van designed by Dilip Chhabria.

IS RE-READING

Mark Haddon's The Curious Incident of the Dog at Night-Time.

BANDEEP SINGH/www.indiatodayimages.com

7

SHASHIKANT AND RAVI RUIA

66 & 60, Industrialists (7)

RAVI (LEFT) AND SHASHIKANT

POWER BREAK

Means golf at Kodai for Shashi and a day out at sea for Ravi.

HOME COMING

The Ruia's come together whenever India is playing cricket.

The World is Not Enough

Because they have the ear of those in power, whether in the states or at the Centre.

Because at over $14 billion, they are among the top five Indians on the Forbes Billionaires' list.

Because they are set to raise $3 billion in the largest issue ever by an Indian company, by listing their power, ports, oil and refinery business under Essar Energy on the London Stock Exchange.

Because they are fully integrated in every business, be it ore to steel retail, ships to ports or telecom to towers to the largest mobile store business.

Because their group turnover has tripled from $3 billion to $15 billion in five years and is set to touch $30 billion by 2012.

Because they are doubling their capacities in steel, refining and power.

Because like the government of China, they are investing in what they believe is the next big continent, Africa.

Big acquisition A refinery in Kenya and a mobile business in Uganda and Congo.

Big idea Global footprint plus global scale equals global leadership.

Masters of the universe move The group has a fleet of 11 aircraft used by the family and their executives to manage their businesses across the globe.