

34

A.R. RAHMAN

44, Music Director (11)

Mozart of the East

Because from a concert for 80,000 in Sydney to a dinner at the White House to singing in a reprise of We are the world with 99 other world artistes, he is India's voice globally.

Because he is collaborating with the best in the world, from Mick Jagger to Joss Stone.

Because he has put his money where his heart is, building an institution for future musicians at the KM Musiq Conservatory in Chennai.

Because after two Oscars and two Grammys, he is all set to wow the world with the 16-city Jai ho Concert beginning in New York.

One thing he misses Picking up his elder daughter Kadhija, 12, from school.

H.K. RAJASHEKAR/www.indiatodayimages.com

BIG CHANGE

The departure of his long-time manager Noell James.

POWER MOVE

Setting up a studio in Los Angeles, adding to the one in London.

REUBEN SINGH/www.indiatodayimages.com

SHIVINDER (LEFT)
WITH MALVINDER

POWER LIFESTYLE

Both are strict vegetarians and teetotalers.

EXOTIC BREAK

Both the brothers recently holidayed at Cebu, Philippines.

HEMANT CHAWLA/www.indiatodayimages.com

36

MALVINDER & SHIVINDER MOHAN SINGH

37 & 34, Industrialists (25)

Money Bags

Because after severing all ties with Ranbaxy, which the brothers sold to Daiichi Sankyo for Rs 10,000 crore, they are focused on growing and creating wealth through the Rs 2,700-crore Religare, one of the fastest growing integrated financial services institutions, and the Rs 1,800-crore Fortis Healthcare.

Because their Fortis Healthcare plans to add eight more hospitals to its current kitty of 40.

Because from a tiny stock brokerage in 2001, Religare is now a growing firm with operations in 10 countries, thanks to its acquisition of the 200-year-old international brokerage firm Hichens Harrison.

Wardrobe check The brothers always call each other up and check what they are wearing to ensure they don't land up identically dressed.

New high Their air charter firm Religare Voyage is flying its newest Augusta helicopter from US to India and will make 8 stops in 8 days across 4 continents.

POWER ACQUISITION

350 acres next to DLF's current golf course in Gurgaon for Rs 1,700 crore.

SUCCESS MANTRA

To be a leader in business, you have to be an all-rounder.

Funniest thing to happen to him

Twenty years ago, someone at a party thought he was an employee at DLF and offered to organise a sale for his Gurgaon golf course, along with a commission for him.

Big passion Is an avid art collector. Owns works of M.F. Husain, Paresh Maity, Satish Gujral, Bikash Bhattacharjee and Paramjit Singh among others.

Tough guy talk One, cut verbosity. Two, do everything the right way.

