

POWER PLAY

Practices a martial arts style called Budokan Karate.

GIREESH G/V/www.indiatodayimages.com

47

DEVI SHETTY

57, Doctor (48)

Medical Miracle

Because his low cost Yeshaswini Micro Health Insurance scheme has been emulated as the Rajiv Arogyasree in Andhra Pradesh and the Kalaingar Insurance in Tamil Nadu.

Because he has hospitals in Bangalore, Kolkata, Ahmedabad, Jaipur and Jamshedpur and will soon set up a 2,000-bed heart hospital in the Cayman Islands.

Because he is on the Government's task force to revamp higher medical education and facilities.

Big achievement Tapped old friend, Biotech queen Kiran Mazumdar-Shaw, to launch a 1,400-bed super-specialty cancer centre in Bangalore.

Did you know Having performed more than 10,000 heart surgeries, he now wants to scale up from 25 a day to 50.

HEMANT CHAWLA/www.indiatodayimages.com

48

ARUNA ROY

63, Social Activist (NEW)

Mass Appeal

Because though the National Advisory Council has been disbanded, she still has Sonia Gandhi's ear.

Because the Government withdrew its move to include a clause to penalise "frivolous" appeals by amending the Right to Information Act thanks to her effective campaigns.

Because of the success of her public hearings, the UPA's flagship programmes were reworded to include public hearings.

Did you know That she is a trained classical dancer from Kalakshetra in Chennai.

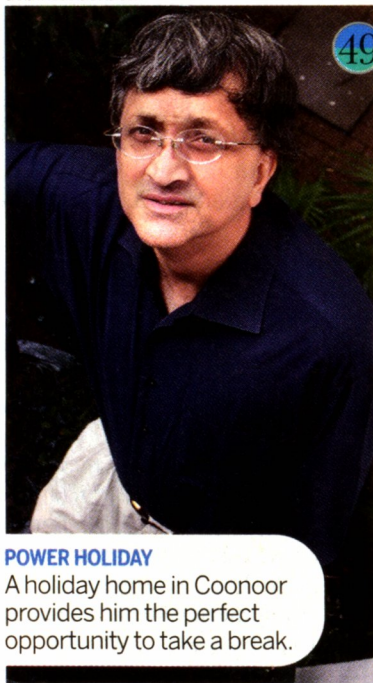

SUNEETINDER SINGH/www.indiatodayimages.com

POWER STATEMENT

"You are spending my money. Show me the accounts."

SANJAY RAMACHANDRAN

49

RAMACHANDRA GUHA

52, Historian (50)

The Chronicler

Because he is the country's premier non-fiction writer, who has signed a first-of-its-kind Rs 97-lakh, seven-book deal with Penguin in a recessionary market.

Because whether it is the administration of the Nehru Memorial Museum and Library or expressing his views on the nomination of Sri Sri Ravi Shankar for the Nobel Peace Prize, he is not afraid to take a stand.

Cool quotient Wrote an essay about how he had kissed his then girlfriend (now wife) in a Bangalore bookshop.

Secret society Not even Guha probably knows that he is the "intellectual pin-up boy" of the gay community in Bangalore.

The Player

Because despite several cabinet ministers gunning for him, he remains the Organising Committee Chairman of the Commonwealth Games, India's Rs 8,000-crore showpiece sporting event.

Because as president of Indian Olympic Association for the third term, he is India's front man for any major sporting bid.

Because it also gives him a key role in dictating the future of struggling sports federations.

Did you know That he is an ex Air Force pilot and served in the Indo-Pak wars of 1965 and 1971.

50

SURESH KALMADI

55, Politician (NEW)

POWER LOSS

Lost 6 kg last year "due to the running around I am doing for the Commonwealth Games".

