

SEX AND SPIRITUALITY

“Both are an inner consciousness of our life”

“Translate sex into spirituality, otherwise it may be harmful”

I thought I will be asked to speak on health and spirituality. But I have been asked to speak on sex and spirituality. People say Baba is a controversial personality. But they only put controversial topics before me to discuss.

In simple language, creation is the result of sex. All of us on the earth are a result of kama, sex. Our lust should be converted into worship. Sex should be translated into spirituality, otherwise it may be harmful. Our life and this universe is a result of work done by our organs like our speech, our eyes, hands, feet and mind. One of these organs is “Upasthi”, whose control is called Brahmacharya. And whose right use is called kama, sex. None of our organs are inactive. As my friend Satya Vedantji has said, sex has become a very controversial issue. But sex is not a controversial thing; actually its perception is not right. Kama has its own limitations, its own dignity. I am using the word kama because some people would not like to hear the word sex from my mouth. This is also the result of our perceptions.

And there is an appropriate age for kama. All other organs remain active from childhood to death but kama before the age of 25 will not be natural. If you are

IN THIS WORLD. WHETHER
IT IS THE SUN OR THE EARTH,
EVERYTHING IS BOUND BY A
RULE. THE SAME HOLDS
TRUE FOR SEX, IT HAS TO FOLLOW A RULE.”
