COUPLE CURE

Prince of Rajpipla, Manvendra Singh Gohil, 44, has challenged yoga guru Baba Ramdev to cure him of his homosexuality. "Let the Swami cure me of what he calls a disease," he says, as he makes plans to marry his partner in Nepal.

Baba Ramdev has accepted and says, "Let Gohil join my yoga camp and then I will prove how this mental disorder can be cured." He claims the remedy is a daily dose of yoga and pranayam. Now to see if Gohil will accept the offer.

KAT WALK

Zarine Khan not only has Katrina Kaif's looks, but also her luck. Her debut film Veer may have nosedived, but she managed to scorch the ramp at the Bangalore Fashion Week with Mugdha Godse and Yana Gupta. Designer Ramesh Dembla says, "Her look in the film suited my sheer and shimmer theme. The crown and the shimmering saris matched her look in Veer." Salman Khan continues to be a lucky mascot for the ladies.

Reel Break

Udayanidhi Stalin won't follow after his father, Deputy Chief Minister of Tamil Nadu M.K. Stalin. Udayanidhi, who runs Red Giant Movies, is acting in and producing Kamal Haasan's project, Yaavarum Kelir. He will be competing with his cousin Kalanidhi Maran, who is the producer of Rajinikanth-starrer Enthiran. Chief Minister M. Karunanidhi's grandchildren are forging a legacy of their own.

Beyond the Horizon

The youngest Indian to scale the Everest, Krushnaa Patil, 20, is now aiming at being the only Indian woman to climb the highest peaks in every continent. Her next expedition will be either Mount Kosciuszko in Australia or Indonesia's Carstensz Pyramid. "Most Indian mountaineers stop after they have done the Everest, but I did not want to do that," she says. She wants to pen a book about her adventures and is contemplating on a career in films or in the army. There's just no stopping this girl.
