Mining baron and Tourism Minister G. Janardhana Reddy may well get a taste of his own medicine if the Government ejects his younger brother G. Somashekhara Reddy from the post of Karnataka Milk Federation (KMF) chairman. In July 2009, the Government had booted out former prime minister and JD(S) honcho H.D. Deve Gowda's son H.D. Revanna from the KMF's top seat, appointing Bellary MLA Somashekhara instead. This was done at the urging of the Reddy brothers. A year ago, then state BJP unit chief D.V. Sadananda Gowda—who handed over charge to K.S. Eshwarappa last month—helped form a milk producers' cell in the profit-making KMF comprising 20 lakh dairy farmers. Somashekhara, hoping to complete a three-year term, may well be crying over spilt milk with Sadananda's name doing the rounds to replace him. If that happens, one Gowda will replace another Gowda in the Reddy-made mix of politics and milk in Karnataka.

IF SOMASHEKHARA IS EJECTED FROM THE TOP POST AT THE KARNATAKA MILK FEDERATION, IT WILL BE ANOTHER BLOW TO JANARDHANA REDDY.
