

NEW D GREAT EXP

P. Chidambaram

Union Home Minister

Among the most prominent cabinet ministers of the United Progressive Alliance, P. Chidambaram's achievements at the Ministry of Finance are legendary. He was entrusted with Home Affairs after the 26/11 terror attacks on Mumbai.

Nitish Kumar

Chief Minister, Bihar

Described as a politician, social worker, agriculturist and an engineer, Nitish Kumar is a man of multiple talents. He is widely credited for singlehandedly bringing development politics to the centrestage in Bihar.

Jairam Ramesh

Minister of State for Environment & Forests

Member of the National Advisory Council, Jairam Ramesh has shaped India's strategy to combat climate change. He has written numerous key reports on energy, technology and other diverse issues.

Politicians who provide hope and inspiration: this indeed is the future. A Home Minister with unique credibility who plans to create an internal security environment that reflects the modernity of India. An industrialist who brings his expertise to urban infrastructure. A leader who emerged as the strongest voice of developing nations on the international stage.

A radical politician who brought development politics to unruly Bihar. And one who is known as Mr Green. These politicians truly represent the can-do attitude of young India.
