

THE ECSTASY AND the agony is apparent as Indians celebrate a 4-1 victory against Pakistan in the opening match of the 2010 World Cup Hockey in Delhi. For India, it was sweet revenge for the 1-7 humiliation in the 1982 Asian Games final.

A MILITANT HELD IN BANGLADESH HAS CLAIMED HE PLAYED A MAJOR ROLE IN THE KANDAHAR HIJACKING.

It seems that Delhi's bonhomie with Sheikh Hasina Wajed's Government in Bangladesh is bearing fruit with the arrest of leaders of various terror outfits and that of five Jaish-e-Mohammed (JEM) militants in Dhaka. One of the arrested terrorists, Nannu Mian alias Billal Mondol, has claimed that he played a role in the hijacking of the Kathmandu-Delhi Indian Airlines flight IC-814 on December 24, 1999 to Kandahar. Mondol had earlier been arrested by the Assam Police in 1999 and jailed under the Foreigners Act 1946. In 2007, he was handed over to the West Bengal Police in connection with arms dealing and counterfeit currency cases. He had jumped bail and had been absconding. The arrest of Pakistani national Rizwan Ahmed, 26, along with Mondol also exposes the JEM's sinister design of using Bangladesh for carrying out terror attacks in India. If Mondol's role is confirmed in the Kandahar hijacking, India may seek his extradition from Bangladesh.
