

NEW D GREAT EXP

Nikesh Arora

President Global Sales
& Development, GOOGLE INC.

Nikesh Arora, President, Global Sales Operations and Business Development at Google, oversees all revenue and customer operations, and marketing and partnerships. He developed and managed the company's operations in the European, Middle Eastern and African markets, creating and expanding strategic partnerships for Google's growing number of users and advertisers. Hear the man speak on

The World According to Google,
Friday, March 12, 2010

Chris Hughes

Founder of Facebook & Former
Coordinator, my.barackobama.com

Chris Hughes a technology superstar at 25 years, helped create two of history's most successful start ups- Facebook, with 200 million users now, was hatched in his dorm room at Harvard. Then he became the force behind My.BarackObama.com, that helped elect Obama and revolutionized the Web as a political tool. Add him as a friend at the session

The Power of Networking,
Saturday, March 13, 2010

John Chambers

Chairman & CEO, CISCO

John Chambers, Chairman & CEO of CISCO, has served two presidents and grown the company from US$1.2 billion in annual revenues to $36 billion. He received the Clinton Global Citizen award, the State Department's corporate social responsibility award and the Excellence in Corporate Philanthropy Award, given by his CEO peers. Hear him speak at the session,

Cutting Edge Technologies for the Planet, Friday, March 12, 2010

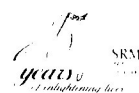

CONCLAVE SPONSOR

CONCLAVE CO-SPONSOR

CONCLAVE ASSOCIATES

CONCLAVE