

THE GREAT GLAM SLAM

There were hits and there were misses, and then there were others lost in between. Some of the celebrities who caught the most attention.

SHASHI K. PAUL / www.indiatodayimages.com

SEASON OF DISCORD

One was an all out war; the other was bit more hush-hush. We wanted to scream enough for one and couldn't get enough of the other. Adnan Sami's on-off wife Sabah Galadari sang about his temper, domestic abuse and apparent infidelity. Sami didn't stop either, called her heartless and mean. Though Aishwarya Rai-Bachchan and Sonam Kapoor did none of the name calling, at least not in public, there were enough fireworks when Kapoor was chosen as L'oreal's young brand ambassador. Her plans to walk the Cannes carpet came to a jarring halt, allegedly because Ash didn't want it.

YOGEN SHAH

DESIGNED TO LEAD

Manish Arora doesn't do Bollywood weddings. And yet, the Delhi maverick made the most noise. From rapper MIA to international popstar Katy Perry, everyone loved Arora's whimsy. Even our favourite fashion fiend Sonam Kapoor slipped into his dress. At this year's Paris Fashion Week, his show was named in the Top 10. Take a bow.

SUMET INDER SINGH / www.indiatodayimages.com

HOTTEST WEDDING

In keeping with her love for reality, everyone thought the Shilpa Shetty-Raj Kundra wedding saga would be a free for all. Surprise surprise, it was so secret that even little sister Shamita Shetty, inside the Bigg Boss house, wasn't informed initially. Though very few were invited to the actual ceremony at Khandala, the entire industry was invited to the after-party. We just have one complaint—with all of Kundra's millions, why couldn't Shilpa get herself better clothes?

YOGEN SHAH