The founding of the Vijayanagar empire was an epoch making event in the history of Bharat. The Nation is proud of a model ruler, who championed the democratic thoughts in administration 500 years ago on this land.

And he devolved a "Golden Era", the pomp and gaiety of the empire reached its zenith under his rule - he is the emperor Sri Krishnadevaraya of Vijayanagar Empire in Karnataka. Sri Krishnadevaraya the emperor par excellence to Ashoka, Samudra Gupta and Harsha Vardhana was a formidable warrior, a great general and brilliant military strategist.

In a short span of 21 years of rule, the legacy left behind by him attained eternity. Hampi the capital city of this great empire even today reverberates with the rich heritage and gaiety of the bygone era. The most beautiful monuments here with their intrinsic carvings mesmerise every onlooker. Naturally, Hampi has been honored as a "World Heritage Site" by UNESCO.

Celebration of the 500th year of coronation of this great emperor is not only a tribute to him but an inspiration to one and all at all times.

Come, participate in the celebrations, uphold the glory of our ancient culture
