

La Liga

Hansi Flick's Barcelona seems to be on a mission to wrap up the league as quickly as possible, having won all seven of its games so far to take a six-point lead at the top of the table.

The German's cause is being aided most by Raphinha (right), who grabbed consecutive hat-tricks against Racing Santander and Sevilla to become the first player to reach double figures in the league this season, scoring 12 out of the Catalans' 31 goals so far.

Real Madrid, on the other hand, heads into the season break frustrated after it was handed a defeat by Atletico Madrid in a derby dogged by controversy.

The game slipped out of Los Blancos' hands after Dean Huijsen was sent off for a last-defender challenge, allowing Alejandro Grimaldo to convert from the spot early in the second half. Six minutes later, Jonathan David tapped in Giuliano Simeone's pass from close range for his third league goal of the season.

Antonio Rudiger pulled one back in the 89th minute, but it was not enough for Real, which claimed it had been let down by the referees throughout the match. Head coach Jose Mourinho arrived at the post-match press conference carrying printouts showing Atletico's Lee Kang-in and Cristian Romero committing potential red-card fouls on his players, neither of which resulted in a send-off.

The win propelled Atletico to second with 16 points from seven games, five behind Barcelona and one ahead of third-placed Madrid.

Madrid rumble: Atletico Madrid secured a crucial win over Real Madrid to move up to second in the table.
