On the fast lane: 200m champion Melissa Jefferson-Wooden's 21.47s was the fourth-fastest ever run. Only world record holder Florence Griffith Joyner (21.34) and Jamaican Shericka Jackson (21.41 and 21.45) have gone faster. AP
