

INTO THE BEDROOM SEVEN YEARS IN A ROW WITH INDIA TODAY

- 1 Indians continue to shy away from using sex toys this year too. Last year, of the 5,353 respondents spanning from 18 to 40 years, only 10 per cent had used sex toys while 9 per cent have done so in 2009.
- 2 The missionary position continues to top Indian bedrooms this year too. While last year, 72 per cent favoured the man on top position, the number was significantly less (57 per cent) in 2007.
- 3 The incidence of bondage sex has gone down. While 15 per cent had given it a try in 2008, only 12 per cent have done so this year. In 2008, 17 per cent had expressed their desire to indulge in it. This year, the number stands at 14 per cent.
- 4 Role playing, however, has gone down the popularity charts. While three out of 10 had claimed they liked role playing in 2008, only 17 per cent fantasised about it this year.
- 5 The level of satisfaction when it comes to trying new things in bed with their partners has increased. While 66 per cent reported that they were quite satisfied this year, only 60 per cent had admitted that their partner was adventurous in bed in 2008.
- 6 Men continue to find Aishwarya Rai Bachchan sexually attractive. In 2006, the survey was carried out on 2,559 men in the age group of 16-25. When asked about the sexiest man and woman in Bollywood, a majority had pointed out Rai and John Abraham.

compiled by Priya Verma

For previous sex surveys log on to:
www.indiatoday.in/sexsurvey

SEX SURVEY COVER STORY 2009

ESSAY

BANDEEP SINGH/www.indiatodayimages.com

AGE OF ABSTINENCE

Adolescents in India knew this much before the Twilights. Sex is best when delayed. For the majority, the first sexual encounter happens only in the 20s.

38

Twenties

21

Still a virgin

19

Thirties

18

Teenage

3

Pre-teens

All figures in per cent.