STAR STRUCK

Celebrities and filmstars provide equal opportunity fantasies in a glamour-obsessed world. However, doctors, nurses and salespersons are also not far behind as objects of desire. Some of India's fantasy partners are:

31	17	12	4	22
A filmstar	Salesperson visiting my house	A school student	A spiritual guru	A doctor/nurse

For 1,809 respondents of the total 5,371 who fantasised about having sex with strangers. Figures don't add up to 100 because of multiple choices. All figures in per cent.

Prostitute 23

Salespersons visiting my house	8
A doctor/nurse	8
A school student	6
A celebrity	4

For 1,570 respondents of the total 5,371 who fantasise about having sex with strangers and have had sex. Figures don't add up to 100 because of multiple choices. All figures in per cent.

public and private.

The sex survey figures indicate that only 14 per cent of the women surveyed claim the desire to have sex with a stranger. In contrast, 53 per cent of the men surveyed expressed the desire to have sex with a stranger. Only 6 per cent of women claimed they wanted to have sex with a celebrity compared to 30 per cent men. The question that begs to be asked is, why this disparity in numbers? These are only fantasies after all and nobody has to act on them if they don't want to, are afraid to, or lack the opportunity to.

Forty-four per cent of women polled (76 per cent, 65 per cent and 58 per cent in Ludhiana, Jaipur and Lucknow respectively) said they did not actually want to act on their
