

A young boy is captured mid-jump, smiling broadly. He is wearing a white t-shirt and has paint splatters on his face and clothes. In his right hand, he holds a paintbrush with orange bristles and a purple handle. Behind him, a large, vibrant splash of paint in rainbow colors (red, orange, yellow, green, blue, purple) radiates outwards, with smaller black and white splatters scattered around. The background is plain white.
