■ La MODE 2 LA MODE SUITS + 1 SUIT-LENGTH @ RS. 5,980

Delhi is buying and gifting suits in bulk; courtesy the amazingly low retail prices and the widest range ever under one roof – under La Mode's roof. Today in fact La Mode has become an institution in men's dressing. They have been able to carve a unique and distinct brand name for themselves in the menswear segment over the years and stand a head above all competition in the segment. Maha Suit Festival has become even more tempting with the first promotional offer being offered by La Mode in its history of 20 years. You can now get a Raymond suit-length free on purchase of two woollen suits of Rs. 2995 or more. Plus designer Saurave Gupta has introduced 25 new designs and patterns at the fall of winter 2009 so there are over 100 designs, patterns and styles to choose from. La Mode is actually creating designer news; by offering sensational fabrics which stand out for their sheer elegance. The label recognises the need for stylised clothes and thus delivers garments that excel not only in style but also in immaculate finishes. Made of fabrics from leading mills like Raymond and Reid & Taylor, the suit collection starts from Rs. 1695; in the woollen suit range, La Mode is the only brand which is offering suits from Rs. 1995 onwards. Its Raymond fabric suit range starts from Rs. 2580. They also have a wide range of shirts, trousers, sherwanis, t-shirts, denims and accessories – all offered with unbeatable style, range and price. At LA Mode they source huge volume of fabric directly from country's leading mills, get the stitching and fabrication at their own most modern and automatic plants, manage distribution on their own, sell from self owned outlets through their own sales team. Making advance payment for all the inputs including labour help La Mode reduce the cost further. It is this truly unique business model of La Mode, which has resulted in growth of its popularity. Simply put, what you get at La Mode is absolute quality and style at less than half the market price. La Mode has heralded a new era in men's wear where breaking from conventions is the only norm. This range is for men who wish to make a mark in the milieu and those who wish to be distinguished through their actions and of course clothes. After all a man of class is a man of style. That's universally accepted. So quit donning 'fade-into-the-crowd-generic' styles and move on to clothes that spell class even from a distance. Don the nifty stuff from their exhaustive collection, which come with an unmatched international flavour and look natty all through the season. This value for money brand is a perfect example of products that showcase tradition and innovation in perfect synchronisation. This is truly for men who like to stay ahead of times and leave their mark in the milieu. So warm up in their designs this winter and get the dual benefit of style and quality together. Now that the Maha Suit Festival is on, all you need to do is to go visit LA Mode to up the style quotient of your wardrobe and make it the kind people talk about for years to come and try to emulate. Go check out La Mode.
