

FAST FORWARD

She can't sit still. When Ramona Narang Rodella isn't busy being one of Mumbai's better known society girls, she's looking after her twins. And now she's turned fashion designer. It's just been two weeks since her brother

Timmy got married to Eesha Koppikar and Rodella's already launched her resortwear line with 20 pieces. Kaftans and party dresses dominate the collection that she thought of when she was pregnant. With her society connections, we're sure customers won't be particularly hard to find.

VIDEO GAMES

Rakhi Sawant is back where she began after a long stint on reality TV. With a bob and leather gloves, she's all set for a new music video with DJ IshQ Bector.

Q. Why go back to music videos?

A. I was bored of reality. Dance is my passion. I fought with IshQ the first time we met. But since he named the album Jhagde for me, I had to say yes.

Q. You've cut your hair for the video. Why?

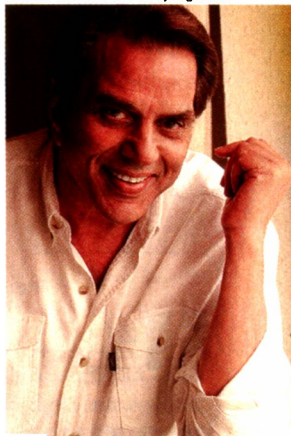

A. I was bored of my Indian look. It's inspired by Rihanna. It's very stylish like her.

Q. Were you apprehensive about your makeover?

A. I was scared. I didn't know what will be done to my beautiful face. But I loved it in the end.

The Mileage Man

This year is doubly special for Dharmendra. Not only did he just turn 75 but he also celebrated his golden jubilee in Hindi films. Nor is he letting age catch up with the mileage. He will soon be seen in Sangeeth Sivan's Cheers, a father-son story, along with son Bobby and nephew Abhay Deol. Family comes first again when he teams up with his two sons for Masters, a film about three conmen. Mixing it up, Dharmendra gets emotional with Jahnu Barua's Har Pal. Triple treat? Hope the wait ends soon.

Rocking Replay

After 14 years off the stage, Philippe and Mark Haydon, Sharad Tyagi and Cedric Fernandez will come together for one last performance. The quartet rocked campuses with their band, Hammersmith, in the 1980s and '90s. The first Asian rock band to play on MTV then, corporate life beckoned and they moved to different cities. "We've always been in touch. Someone threw this idea up and we thought it would be great to reunite," says Haydon, adding that they'll be playing at IIM-Ahmedabad. Rock on, we say.
