

Rahul Unplugged

ON YOUTH

"What I am trying to do is to create through the youth wings thousands of Obamas. It's a question of channeling them, moving them into the political system and giving them more power."

"I DON'T FOCUS ON ELECTIONS. I focus on thoughts and bringing the youth into politics. So, my goal is not mission 2012, my goal is different. My aim is to connect the youth of Uttar Pradesh with the Youth Congress and NSUI and to provide the state a new type of politics and thinking."

ON DEVELOPMENT

"The NDA ignored the poor, while the Left didn't develop the system that is required to generate money."

"THE REAL POWER OF NREGA is in how it reshapes the labour market and gives the poor a floor to stand on."

"The idea is that you take the India of opportunities, you grow that India and you take some of its benefits and you put them into the villages."

ON PAKISTAN

"Geographically, Pakistan is just a small piece of land; its comparison with India is a misfit pursuit."

ON COMMUNISM

"The communists in Bengal are caught in an outdated ideological bind. I went to China and they asked me, why don't they change?"

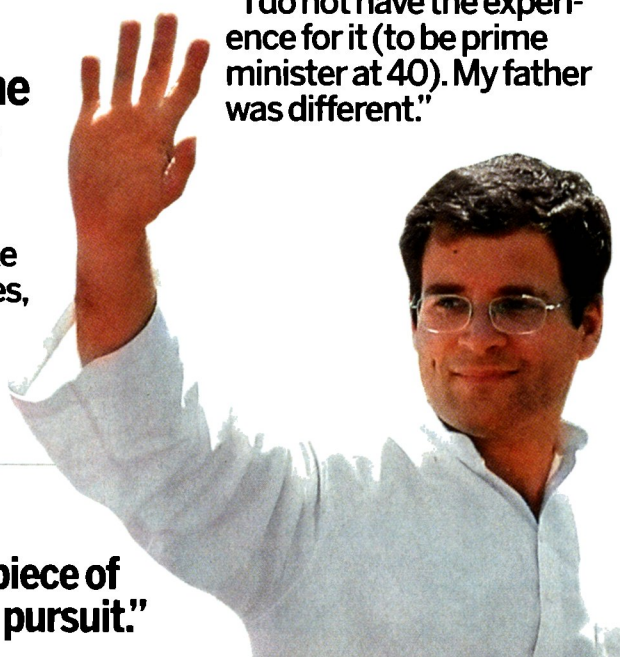

ON HIMSELF

"WHEN I MEET SOMEONE, I listen very carefully. You can learn a lot just by listening to someone. That is my job, to learn from them."

"Just because I am the outcome of a system, it does not mean I can't change it. I consider it my duty to change the system of which I am a product."

"I would not have been here, if I was not from a political family. If you do not have money, a family or friends, you cannot enter politics. I want to change this."

"I do not have the experience for it (to be prime minister at 40). My father was different."

MANEESH AGNIHOTRI/www.indiatodayimages.com