

2009 Year of Revival

Hope... Revival, Flu and Red Terror

Political reputations, the economy, corporate results, cricket, slumdog millionaires; 2009 has been a year of revival and, more importantly Hope. Despite the swine flu pandemic and Maoist terror, the year witnessed renewal and optimism, capped by the Indian cricket team being ranked the number one test team. We also saw technological evolution with twitters and blogs dominating cyber space. The India Today Year End special will feature first person accounts from those who have closely covered major events of the year. Read about all this and of many more events that made headlines in the year 2009.

SPECIAL ISSUE ON SALE FROM JANUARY 1, 2010

