

Sleeping with the ENEMY

The spy scandal involving Madhuri Gupta at the Indian High Commission in Islamabad has sparked serious concerns about the secrets she revealed and the damage to India's interests

Modus OPERANDI

How Gupta supplied information to her handlers in Pakistan

1

Gupta meets a Pakistani journalist in late 2007. Journalist tries to infiltrate into Indian mission on behalf of Pakistani intelligence agencies.

2

In 2008, the journalist introduces her to Rana, posing as a businessman but really a Pakistani Intelligence operative. Rana wins her trust and they develop a relationship. She becomes an accomplice.

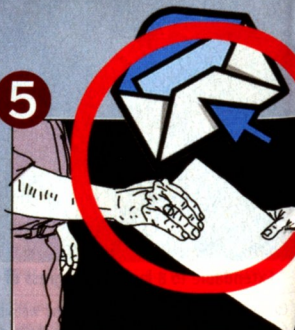

4

She creates several e-mail accounts and saves the messages in the Drafts folder, which her handlers can access at any given time to extract information.

Indian agents tracking a Jammu-based ISI agent stumble upon her links with Gupta. An e-mail from Gupta's official computer alerts them and she is put under surveillance.

5

Illustrations by SAURABH SINGH/www.indiatodayimages.com