

CONFESSIONS OF A TERRORIST

Kasab was interrogated extensively and also subjected to narco-analysis. Excerpts from his questioning.

Q. How did your father and Chacha (Lakhvi) get to know each other?
 A. They knew each other from my village.
 Q. Did he (Lakhvi) visit your village?
 A. Yes, he has an office in my village as well as in Divalpur. This is how they invite people, just like they did with my father. He told me it's a very difficult job. It is very respectable.... He said, son you go, your poverty will go away. You will earn respect.
 Q. How many days did you train?
 A. About three months.
 Q. Where did your training take place?
 A. There is a city called Mansehra. There is a place near it, village Batal.
 Q. How many people were trained.
 A. About 24-25 people were there in our class during the training.
 Q. After you finished today's work (26/11), where were you to go?
 A. We were to die.
 Q. How?
 A. He (Lakhvi) used to say, you will go to heaven. So I said to myself, run, this does not feel right.
 Q. How many people did you shoot?
 A. I don't know.
 Q. How many bullets did you fire?
 A. Don't know. Maybe two, two-and-a-half magazines.
 Q. How many people did you kill?
 A. We just kept on firing.
 Q. Who were you told to kill?
 A. The people.
 Q. How long did you plan to go on?
 A. He (Lakhvi) used to say, till you are alive, keep on killing, keep on killing.
 Q. How many people came?
 A. There were more. But we had been blindfolded, we two. And then we were made to get off it (the boat).
 Q. So you people came here for Jihad?
 A. (Weeping) What is Jihad, sir?
 Q. Whatever it is, tell us truthfully. Is it right or not?

 A. How do I explain it to you?
 Q. Those who lost their lives, they were poor, just like you. People like you died.
 A. (Weeping) Yes. God will never forgive me.
 Q. So how many days did your training last?

REUTERS

A. First, raw recruits are trained for a month. Then, there is a more training for matured boys. They are then trained for another three months.
 Q. And?
 A. He is made ready and is told: now go, kill. That's it.
 Q. Your training took place a year ago. What did you do for a year?
 A. In the end, he sent me to Karachi. I came to Karachi in that launch, which is used to catch fish. I thought I have now got a job. I didn't know any such thing. Money was being sent home. There was no tension. Father used to say, my son will do a great job... so he needs this.

Mufti Saeed, Abdurrehman, Maavia, Abu Anis, Bashir, Hanjla Pathan, Saria, Saif-ur-Rehman and Imran.

■ They were also indoctrinated in the tenets of Jihad and the recitation of the Quran and Hadis. This was done by Zaki-ur-Rehman, Hakim Saheb, Hafiz Saeed and Kaahfa. In Kasab's confession, he stated that it was his father who encouraged him to join the LeT. "He told me, son, we are very poor, you meet these people. I met them in Lahore and they sent me to various places for training."

■ During the last phase of their training, the 10 terrorists were given detailed maps of the targeted sites of Mumbai by Abu Kaahfa and Zaki-ur-Rehman Lakhvi at a seaside location in Karachi before they set sail.

■ The chargesheet states that, "this Fidayeen mission was part of a larger criminal conspiracy planned in Pakistan to attack the commercial capital of India with intent to... weaken India economically, create terror and dread and deter foreign visitors... the military precision with which all these attacks were conducted, the com-

ARMS RECOVERY

Mumbai Police recovered these arms and ammunition from the target site. Over 100 grenades, RDX and ammo had already been detonated.

mando-like action, the complexity of the operation, the detailed and meticulous planning, the familiarity and dexterity in the handling of sophisticated weaponry and electronic equipment, all conclusively point to training by military professionals in Pakistan.

■ A total number of 41 calls lasting 8,834 seconds were made from the Taj Mahal Hotel, 62 calls (15,705 seconds) from Oberoi/Trident and 181 calls (35,172 seconds) from Nariman House, all to Pakistan numbers. During the entire operation, the terrorists were in constant communication with the co-conspirators in Pakistan through mobile Nos. 9819464530, 9820704561 and 9910719424. Instructional and