

IMPORT CRAZY

If your career is over in your own country, come to Bollywood. After all, we are known to treat our guests like kings. Barbara Mori has become a household name while Zoya Akhtar has recently signed a Spanish actor for her movie Running with the Bulls. Now, Monica Cruz, 33, sister of Penelope Cruz, may not be in a Bollywood film, but she's armed herself with a Bollywood theme. In Flamenco in Bollywood, she'll play a flamenco dancer opposite Haal-e-Dil's Nakuul Mehta. Monica may have no chance of outshining her sister in Hollywood, but our doors are always open.

STEPPING UP

Vivek Oberoi, 33, is getting ahead of himself these days. After the excruciating Prince, he dropped out of Broadway musical Kingdom of Dreams. And that too after months of rehearsals. Apparently, the dates didn't match, all of a sudden. But Nach Baliye 2 winner, Hussain Kuwajerwala, 32, was more than happy to step into his shoes for the lead role. The musical, written by Javed Akhtar, is based on the Dilip Kumar movie Azaad. Along with Indian Idol 5, Kuwajerwala has more than one reason to sing and dance.

Lapping it all Up

Tamil actor and racer Ajith Kumar, 39, is back on the track for a full season after six years. At the FIA 2010 Formula 2 Championship in Morocco, he raced into 13th position in the second round. "I improved both my finish positions as well as my timing," he says. There will be no rest when he returns home as his 50th film will release. Kumar is playing the lead in the Tamil action-crime movie Kaaval, directed by Gautham Menon. That's living life in the fast lane.
