Crystal Classics

FRAZER AND HARRIS sculpts an image of Lord Krishna in white marble with embellishments in sterling silver, encrusted with crystals in hues of blue and green. An ode to Krishna, the God of Love, it has been appropriately named as Sanwariya (beloved). It's a limited edition product with only five exclusive pieces.

INSPIRED BY the natural treasures of plants and animals, Swarovski's latest collection "Silver Lake" (right) is a pair of bee-eaters in peridot crystal on silver-tone metal stand. Finely faceted, it combines smoky topaz with accents in jonquil and indicolite crystal and silver on the beaks.

Watch For it

THE LATEST model in the Da Vinci Collection gives prominence to the calendar indications. The Da Vinci Perpetual Calendar Digital Date-Month from IWC Schaffhausen displays the date and the month of its mechanically programmed calendar in digital form.
