64 editions. 100 countries. 200 million readers across the world. Is it any wonder then that when it comes to girls, Cosmopolitan is universally acknowledged as The Bible.

Last year, to celebrate 12 wicked, irreverent, fun years in India, we brought to India a cult event that celebrates the true spirit of being a Cosmo girl—the Cosmopolitan Fun Fearless Female Awards!

We celebrated the biggest names in the country, from Sushmita Sen to Katrina Kaif, and Sania Mirza, among others, at a spectacular Cosmo-style red carpet event in Mumbai. This year our annual celebration of the Fun Fearless spirit gets even more fabulous with Sunsilk Co-Creations at a glamorous event in Mumbai on 20th November 2009. Watch as Sunsilk's renowned panel of 7 hair experts from around the world come together to unveil the all-new expert-formulated Sunsilk range!

While the Cosmopolitan Editorial Board will select winners in 14 categories, we've thrown open 3 very special categories for YOU—to vote for YOUR choice of Fun Fearless Females and Males! Check out the nominees below—and send in your votes NOW!
