

National Board of Accreditation

Getting a NBA accreditation is like an audit for technical institution. It is necessary for students opting for higher studies as well as jobs abroad. Funds for the Technical Education Quality Improvement Plan are also given to only those institutes that have NBA accreditation; Paavai Educational Institutions has achieved this milestone to their credit.

atmosphere and 600 well-informed staff members. With such sophisticated amenities, it is well evident why the Trust maintains such a high record of placements and produces state rank toppers. Paavai also offers scholarships to young minds that strive for education and physically challenged students.

"There can be no half measures when it comes to quality," emphasises Natarajan, resoundingly. "We spare no effort to inculcate these ideologies into our people. While it is them who make a difference, it is process and quality that adds the substance."

The Chairman, Shri CA.N.V.Natarajan holds it strongly that there can be no half measures in quality and this belief makes the difference in the process. Also when people are built, society benefits, and thereby the nation, bringing in a cutting edge of technology, and added value to life.

Shri CA.N.V.Natarajan
Chairman
