

THE GAME TRIP

Also on offer...

Cape Town

Climb up the Table Mountain, visit Robben Island and take a short trip to Cape Point to reach the bottom end of South Africa where the Indian Ocean and the Atlantic meet.

Durban

Take a stroll along the Golden Mile, a 4-km stretch of beach, dotted with cafes, a world-class water park and a casino. Durban, with its fascinating cultural mix, is as famous for its Mile as it is for the largest Indian origin population outside any Indian city.

Johannesburg

Soak in the variety of the City of Gold, also the home of South African football. Choose between strolling through 2,328 parks, visiting the Museum of Apartheid or trying out the Soweto experience.

Rustenberg

Dive into the world famous Sun City and its grand water park, play a round of golf at the Gary Player golf course, the best in South Africa or wander through this centre of the savannah bushlands of the country

Nelspruit

Relish the scenic beauty of the Blyde River Canyon, visit Pilgrims Rest, an old gold-mining town or dive into the Limpopo Transfrontier Park which includes the game parks of three countries: South Africa's Kruger Park, Mozambique's Limpopo Park and Zimbabwe's Gonarezhou Park.

South Africa's World Cup venues offer giant stadia as well as entertainment, wildlife reserves and heritage sites

Mangaung/Bloemfontein

"Place of the Cheetahs" in SeSotho or "Fountain of Flowers" in Dutch, call it what you may, this is a place where there is Boer history to be learnt, Africa's vast open spaces to be appreciated, resorts to be visited and a short drive to be taken to the land-locked Kingdom of Lesotho

Nelson Mandela Bay/Port Elizabeth

Enjoy one of the three venues not at high altitude and its 40 km of beaches on a protected bay or the attractive entertainment and dining at the Boardwalk. Or choose between one of two game parks: the Addo Park with the elephant, lion, leopard, buffalo, rhino, southern right whale and great white shark to be viewed, 70km away. Or make a trip to Kragga Kamma Park, 30 minutes from the city centre.

Polokwane

Though called the "Place of Safety" but it's never boring, with a stone age site like no other in the world at the Makapan's Cave, a forest reserve along with the up-beat Jembe Tavern, a Ndebele tribal visit as well as a casino and entertainment centre

Tshwane/Pretoria

Show respect to the capital of the Rainbow Republic and visit the Union Buildings where Nelson Mandela was sworn in as the President in 1994. Enjoy the National Zoological Gardens and appreciate the Voortrekker Monument built to mark the 1985 Great Trek from coast onto the high veld. The Loftus Versveld Stadium is the country's oldest stadium, more famous for rugby but also the place where the Bafana Bafana scored its first victory over a European side.
