

© BIRK HALDER/www.indiatodayimages.com

THE RMSI WORKFORCE JAMMING AT THEIR OFFICE IN NOIDA

30%

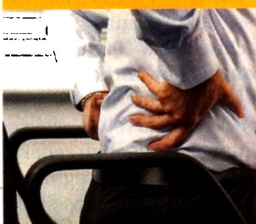

of corporate employees across sectors are struggling with obesity, diabetes, heart ailments and back problems.

54% employees in the IT/ITES sector, 51% in media, 50% in KPO, 47% in financial services and 27% in telecom suffer from chronic conditions—obesity, diabetes, high BP, high cholesterol, heart ailments, spondylitis, sleep disorders and depression.

Burden of Lifestyle Disorders

83% of executives showed depressive symptoms.
56% tested positive for multiple cardiac risk factors.
51% found to have high cholesterol levels.
33% found to be overweight.
17% took drugs to control high blood pressure.

20% of urban Indians worry over work-life balance the most. Globally, the state of the economy tops the worry chart.

60% of executives between 30 and 35 show no symptoms, but 80% diagnosed with risk factors.

Source: Apollo Hospital Group. Data compiled from health check-ups of 230,000 executives, 2009; Corporate Workforce: Chronic and Lifestyle Disease, ASSOCHAM; Global Consumer Opinion Survey, AC Nielsen; Preventive Healthcare & Corporate Female Workforce, ASSOCHAM; World of Work, Teamlease, 2007-10.