

drift into endless green. Landscaped with the promise of "new urbanism" across 25,000 acres, "free India's first lake city" promises to pamper wellness-seekers completely, brazenly: laze away your worries on chaise lounges around pools of every temperature, size and shape; sweat out your blues in weight rooms, workout centres, massage parlours and mud baths; find serenity in the lap of nature through trails and treks; put your feet up at waterfront cafes and country clubs; cultivate your inner peace at cinemas, theatres, academies, theme parks and wellness centres; book into a rehabilitation or retirement village, if needs be. Just 65 kms from Pune, the Rs 40,000-crore project at Lavasa is gearing up to become India's new status symbol. Pick your poison and get ready to walk out a new person.
