

TWO FOR JOY

One baby won't do for Sanjay Dutt. That's why wife Maanyata decided to gift him twins instead and that too months before the actor's 51st birthday. She even opted for IVF treatment to ensure they had twice the joy. While it's a first for Maanyata, Sanjay already has a daughter, Trishala, from his first marriage to Richa Sharma. Will Dutt be able to handle two more? After all, he isn't getting any younger.

FUTOCORP

MIXED DOUBLE

With Lara Dutta tucked firmly by his side, Mahesh Bhupathi is ready for round two off the tennis court. The master of the doubles game teamed up with the former beauty queen, first at the Filmfare Awards function and now at the IIFA. For once, they didn't go on and on about being 'just good friends'. It's a second shot for Bhupathi after Shveta Jaishankar, and well, we've stopped counting for Dutta. Let's see how many aces they serve.

The Joke's on Osama

Pakistan's dashing Prince of Pop Ali Zafar is not one for Bollywood fluff. Zafar, 30, will debut in Abhishek Sharma's tongue-in-cheek comedy on terrorist Osama Bin Laden, Tere Bin Laden. The film is set in Pakistan and has Zafar as an ambitious young news reporter, who produces a fake Laden video to realise his American dreams. Zafar, a Pakistani singing sensation, has a shelf full of awards and hits like Channo, Rangeen and Chal Dil Merey to his credit. Let's hope that his tinsel town debut doesn't get him on Osama's hit-list.

THEORY OF RELATIVITY

Govinda's nieces have tried hard to emulate him. Aarti Singh, 24, has finally bagged a lead role in tv serial Thoda Hai Bas Thode Ki Zaroorat Hai after playing a couple of second and third lead roles. And Chi Chi mama's role in her life? "We just discuss weight issues."

His niece Ragini Khanna, 23, a trained classical singer, wanted to be a pop star but ended up as an actress. She failed 25 auditions before landing roles in tv serials Bhaskar Bharti and Sasural Genda Phool. What a waste of talent, must say.
