■ LA MODE –

Want amazingly low retail prices and the widest range ever under one roof? Visit La Mode today. Over the years La Mode has become an institution in men's dressing. They have carved a unique and distinct brand name for themselves in the menswear segment and now stand a head above all competition in the segment. La Mode is actually creating designer news; by offering fabrics which stand out for their sheer elegance.

Saurav Gupta

The label recognises the need for stylised clothes and thus delivers garments that excel not only in style but also in immaculate finishes. So how do they get the edge? At La Mode they source huge volume of fabric directly from country's leading mills, get the stitching and fabrication at their own most modern and automatic plants, manage distribution on their own, sell from self owned outlets through their own sales team.

It is this truly unique business model of La Mode, which has resulted in growth of its popularity. Simply put, what you get at La Mode is absolute quality and style at less than half the market price. La Mode's cut the mediator out strategy makes it possible.

La Mode has heralded a new era in men's wear where breaking from conventions is the only norm. The range they offer is for men who wish to make a mark in the milieu and those who wish to be distinguished through their actions and of course clothes. After all a man of class is a man of style – this is universally accepted.

So quit donning 'fade-into-the-crowd-generic' styles and move on to clothes that spell class even from a distance. Don the nifty stuff from their exhaustive collection to look natty all through the season.

This value for money brand is a perfect example of products that showcase tradition and innovation in perfect synchronisation. This is truly for men who like to stay ahead of times and leave their mark in the milieu so it makes good sense to don their designs this summer and flaunt both style and quality together. Don't forget to check out the equally wide range of shirts, trousers, sherwani's,

T-Shirts denims and accessories. The opening of new branch at Naraina, provides you with another opportunity to visit LA Mode to up the style quotient of your wardrobe and make it the kind people talk about for years to come and try to emulate. La mode synonymous to uniqueness differentiates itself and gets a competitive edge through its good finishes with style. The 3 D's of La mode- Design, Develop and distribute. The customization takes place with the key focus on customer satisfaction as well as on customer delight.

'Dare what you dare to dream, be what you want to be' being today's mantra of achievement for men, La mode adds to their 'perfectionism' providing both comfort and elegance. Go check out the latest La Mode showroom at WZ-3/3 Ring Road, Naraina New Delhi
