

NATIONAL LAW UNIVERSITY DELHI, TRANSFORMING LEGAL EDUCATION

"The University endeavors to bridge the gap between the theory and practical application of concepts through a learning process which is simulative, participative, and multi-disciplinary."

Prof. (Dr.) Ranbir Singh
Vice-Chancellor

The vision of the University is to create a Global Legal Institution that will compete with the best in India, and abroad, and to prepare Lawyers of future who shall be sensitive to the demands of legal profession. The University's State of the Art infrastructure is in place at Sector-14, Dwarka, New Delhi with all facilities for the students, researchers, and the faculty. The Library resources provided to the students and the Faculty are amongst the best comparable to the most developed Law Schools outside India.

On the initiative of the High Court of Delhi, and with the support of the Government of National Capital Territory of Delhi, National Law University, Delhi was established by Act No.1 of 2008 of NCT of Delhi. The Chief Justice of India is the Visitor of the University, and Chief Justice of the High Court of Delhi is the Chancellor of the University.

The University offers a 5-Year integrated B.A., LL.B. (Hons.) Degree Course after 10+2, or its equivalent. Every year the students are selected through an All India Entrance Test conducted in different cities across the country in the month of May. The Academic Sessions at NLUD are held between August-December, and February-June, with winter and summer breaks of six weeks. However, the students are required to do an internship of four weeks during this period.

Each Semester has five Courses, and the students are continuously evaluated throughout the Semester. Each student has to write a research project for all the Courses in each Semester which is a unique feature of the National Law Universities. During the five years the students complete 50 Courses including the specialized Seminar Courses that are offered in their fourth and fifth years.

NLUD Students come from diverse backgrounds with aspirations of their own. The committed, experienced, and qualified faculty ensures that the curriculum is stimulating, participative, and coherent. Training the students, smoothly moulding their minds, and imparting knowledge is what the faculty is adapt to. Five years at NLUD is an ideal blend of learning that will prepare students for the future. They will graduate to be amongst the finest lawyers, and NLUD ensures that as an institution it will be an agent for the change.

The Faculty members of NLUD build bridges for students to support them in trying times both inside, and out of the classroom. Students are encouraged to discuss their problems, language difficulties, confusion about career choices, and/or simply counseling for appropriate, and reachable career goals. In the class, there is a constant dialogue with students on issues of contemporary concern, and the curricula are constantly changed to the needs of the society.

The University has signed MoUs with more than two dozen Foreign Universities/Institutions for exchange of students, faculty, and for collaborative research. On the initiative of the High Court of Delhi the University is offering a P.G. Diploma in "Judging and Court Management" for those who aspire for judicial service. It is a one year Diploma Course comprising two semesters. The classes are conducted on Saturdays and Sundays.

The classes of the third batch of 5 years B.A., LL.B. (Hons.) students will commence from August 2, 2010.
