VIRBHADRA SINGH

Minister of Steel

Soldering On

The colourful five-time former chief minister of Himachal Pradesh is content to rest on laurels earned at the state level rather than make any big-ticket impact at the Centre.

Achievements

Following the release of a 100-day agenda after he took oath, he has begun restructuring the smaller PSUs of his ministry.

The reopening of the famous Panna Diamond Mines after a gap of four years.

Failures

The Rashtriya Ispat Nigam Ltd did not get a Navratna status despite his many promises.

The Integrated Steel Plant of NMDC at Nagarnar, slated to open last year, is yet to start.

Embarrassing Moment

When he could not get an Assembly ticket for Rohru, which he had won five times, for his wife Pratibha in the November 2009 by-elections.

A. RAJA

Minister of Communications and Information Technology

King of Controversy

Raja has been on the airwaves for all the wrong reasons. Number portability and 2G issues still remain unresolved even as broadband penetration is lagging far behind the target. The state-owned BSNL, too, continues to bleed.

Embarrassing Moment

The surfacing of a three-year-old CD of a taped conversation about alleged illegal transactions.
